March 2017 Newsletter

I really enjoy Tim Allen and both of his sitcom's: "Home Improvement" (of old), and "Last Man Standing" currently running. I know that he is imperfect, swears sometimes, drinks alcohol, gives people a bad time, and pretty much always thinks he is right. In spite of all that I totally enjoy watching his shows. Why? First of all, he is very funny. With all of the wisecrack comments he makes, I could almost see myself in that role.

Second, I love his "vlogs" in the new show. They always have a point of some kind, and usually the point falls within either normal life, or within Christian principles. Mostly however, I like it that deep at the heart of him personally, as an actor, and laced within his T.V. shows, is boldness in taking a stand for Christ. Every time the subject of Jesus comes up and gets ragged on, he stands up for the Savior..... and I like that.

When we look face to face at reality, it is hard to hide. We are all flawed in some way. I used to drink WAY too much. My language was like a rotten egg wrapped in burning rubber: awful! My example was totally flawed because I didn't care what people thought. It is amazing what Christ can do with a totally flawed person like me. When I look at the reality I see in Tim Allen's T.V. shows it makes me smile to know that there truly ARE those in the world of entertainment who will take a stand for God, and it is a great reminder for me that I need to be bold enough to do the same. As the song says, "I'm forgiven, because You were forsaken. I'm accepted, You were condemned. I'm alive and well, Your spirit is within me; because You died and rose again." Knowing that, how can I do anything other than stand for Christ? Thanks Tim, for the example.

Both the secondary building and the women's ministry buildings were erected in February, In addition, Pam did some medical work at the school in surrounding villages. All that was successful. But also, as I told you last month, the weather has taken a dreadful turn for the worse as the entire area is experiencing a very severe drought. The locals have zero ability to raise food in their gardens without water. To compound this awful situation, two of our longstanding and dependable wells literally fell apart, and to make matters worse, the river has completely dried up. As soon as we got home we went into action seeking funds.

I am happy to write to you that at least temporarily we have been able to help our beloved in the K & K area of Uganda in several ways. The well at Kaplobotwo (the second K, in K & K) has been totally redone and is functioning better than it has for several years now. The well at Kabacheriya (the first K, in K & K) is being repaired as we speak. I expect to get the news any day now that the work is complete and the well in back in action. In addition, we received enough funding to: 1) perform a hydrology report for four new wells; 2) put in a new well in the Kabacheriya area, and 3) put in an additional well where it is most needed. Pastor Mike and his team will determine where that will be.

There is more good news. While there ,we purchased a truckload of food to be dispersed among the people of the area: all the people, not just K & K people, and not just Christians. All the people are starving and we want them to experience the love of Christ first hand by His meeting their need for food. We also left enough funding for a second load of food to be disbursed through Amazing Grace Church, and that will be purchased soon. AND, due to the generosity of people who love the Lord and want to show their love to others, we have received funding for two additional truckloads of food. Wait.....there is still more. In addition to people financing lifesaving food and water projects, others have continued their funding to finish the secondary school building and build the latrines necessary for the school. I have literally received gifts from $10 to $10,000 in the past 5 weeks to allow us to keep our people alive in these dire circumstances as we continue to move forward preparing the children to be the Christian leaders of Uganda for tomorrow.

Now let me tell you the REAL exciting news. Even in this dire situation, or perhaps because of it, more and more people are coming to Christ. Nearly every time I talk to Pastor Chemonges Mike, he tells me of new souls who have asked Christ into their hearts. I just give all praise and glory to God for bringing people to Him. After all, THAT is why we do what we do. In the end, when Christ returns, He comes back for one thing only: for His church, His believers. It is the goal of KMI to assist and partner with as many ministries as we can to help bring people to Jesus. There is an eternity for everyone, the big question is this: "Where do you (I) want to spend your (my) eternity? I want to spend mine in the loving arms of Jesus.

Many thanks once again to all of you who are such staunch supporters of KMI. My continual statement that "Nothing Happens Without Prayer" is still alive and well. Thanks for your prayer support. I know you are out there and I know you are praying, or we could not keep moving forward as we do. I am deeply humbled and blessed by your personal support and uplifting as well. In my conversations with people who know what we are about, there is much kind support, many words of encouragement, and tons of heartfelt kindness. And of course I want to thank our financial donors. Your very consistent, dependable, generous, kind, loving, and overflowing support keeps the KMI train rolling down God's tracks. Thank you for giving to the Lord.

So, along with Tim Allen, I take my stand, and it is for my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I know that many of you have taken the same stand, and I deeply appreciate your love for Him. If you have not, and want to visit about how all this "Christianity stuff" works, give me a call. I will be more than glad to meet you for coffee and answer your questions as Biblically as I can. I am not at all interested in teaching you anything about religion, but rather, just guiding you to a relationship with the Living Person of Christ. He is NOT just a religious myth, He is very Real and VERY ALIVE, and wants you to know Him.

Serving Him,

D.C.
